Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1132 (1997) concerning Sierra Leone

Note verbale dated 27 October 2000 from the Permanent Mission of Germany to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Committee

The Permanent Mission of the Federal Republic of Germany to the United Nations presents it compliments to the Chairman of the sanctions Committee and has the honour to respond to his note verbale of 10 July 2000.

In this note, he reminded Member States of their obligation to apply and enforce the sanctions imposed by Security Council resolution 1171 (1998), and to take appropriate legislative steps to make violation of these sanctions a criminal offence.

Security Council resolution 1171 (1998) was implemented by the European Union with its common position 98/409 CFSP of 29 June 1998. The Federal Republic of Germany has fulfilled its obligations to allow for exceptions in accordance with paragraph 2 of resolution 1171 (1998) with the forty-fifth Ordinance Amending the Foreign Trade and Payments Ordinance of 10 September 1998.

Note verbale dated 8 November 2000 from the Permanent Mission of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Committee

Implementation of Security Council resolutions 1171 (1998) and 1306 (2000) by the United Kingdom

Pursuant to paragraphs 8 and 17 of Security Council resolution 1306 (2000), I should like to inform the Committee of the steps taken by Her Majesty's Government to implement the measures imposed by resolution 1171 (1998) and paragraph 1 of resolution 1306 (2000).

Resolution 1171 (1998)

The United Nations Arms Embargoes (Amendment) (Sierra Leone) Order 1998 (Statutory Instrument (SI) No. 1501/1998) came into force on 26 June 1998 and imposes restrictions on the supply or delivery of arms and related material to Sierra Leone or to, or to the order of, any person connected with Sierra Leone.

The Order applies to any person within the United Kingdom, any person elsewhere who is a British citizen and any entities incorporated or constituted under United Kingdom law. Similar Orders impose the same restrictions in relation to the Overseas Territories and Crown Dependencies.

Resolution 1306 (2000)

The prohibition on the direct or indirect import of all rough diamonds from Sierra Lone is implemented in the United Kingdom by means of an amendment to The Open General Import Licence which came into force on 17 July 2000. It is implemented in a similar manner in the Isle of Man. It is implemented in the other Crown Dependencies by the Sierra Leone (United Nations Sanctions) (Channel Islands) Order 2000 (SI 2000/1840) and in the Overseas Territories by the Sierra Leone (United Nations Sanctions) (Overseas Territories) Order 2000 (SI 2000/1822), both of which came into force on 14 July 2000.
